FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

American Holistic Nurses Association

Heads to Portland for the 34th Annual AHNA Conference

The American Holistic Nurses Association (www.ahna.org) on June 5-8, 2014 is holding their 34th Annual AHNA Conference at the Portland Marriott Downtown Waterfront in Portland, Oregon. Attendees will learn about holistic practice, education, and research from all types of health care experts. Nurses can get over 21 CE contact hours during the full conference and even more by adding pre-conference and post-conference workshop activities. More information about the conference can be found at www.ahna.org/conference

About 2014 Conference

The purpose is to enable holistic nurses to develop advocacy and leadership skills which can be used in the transforming of healthcare systems to a caring/healing perspective. AHNA Conferences bring together over 450+ nurses and professionals who are committed to sharing their expertise, experiences, and enthusiasm for holistic healthcare.

Holistic Nurses are driving the paradigm shift, locally and globally, towards maintaining caring healing values in our healthcare system. They are experts at creating healing environments that support health and wellness promotion. More Americans living with chronic conditions are turning to holistic nurses for information, education, and care that focuses on their needs for whole health healing.

About AHNA

Since its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) – a non-profit professional membership organization - has increasingly become the definitive global voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the globe. The organization’s primary mission is to advance holistic nursing through community building, advocacy, research, and education.
Over the past 32 years AHNA has consistently delivered valuable resources, improved educational tools, and offered superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks both in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
