FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AHNA Speakers Head Lineup at 3rd Annual New England Holistic Nursing Conference

With the announcement of two of their leaders on the lineup for the 3rd Annual New England Holistic Nursing Conference, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) will have significant visibility at the upcoming three-day event.

AHNA’s substantial presence will include:

- Dr. Rothlyn (Rorry) Zahourek, PhD, PMHCNS-BC, AHN-BC, delivering the keynote presentation, entitled “Holistic You: Holistic Nurse – The Heart of Holistic Nursing”; and

- Dr. Glenda Christiaens, PhD, RN, AHN-BC, presenting a plenary session called “Co-Creating the Future of Nursing Holistically”.

Dr. Zahourek will also provide a workshop entitled “Infusing Holistic Nursing into Non-CAM Modalities.”

Dr. Zahourek was recently named the AHNA’s Holistic Nurse of the Year. Dr. Christiaens is the immediate past president of AHNA. They are considered to be two of the leading minds in the Holistic Healthcare community today.

The conference is geared specifically towards nurses and healthcare providers interested in exploring practical applications to integrate holism and conventional care. The event is jointly presented by AHNA and Saint Anselm College’s School of Continuing Nursing Education, with a commitment to advancing the practice of nursing.

With the theme “Transforming and Reforming Evidence-Based Nursing Holistically,” the 3rd Annual New England Holistic Nursing Conference will take place at the Colony Hotel in Kennebunkport, ME, from September 25-27, 2013. Conference information is available from Amy Guthrie, RN, MS, 603-641-7083. Her email address is Aguthrie@anselm.edu.

About AHNA

Since its’ founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) – a non-profit professional membership organization - has increasingly become the definitive global voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the globe.

The organization’s primary mission is to advance holistic healthcare by increasing awareness, education and both professional and personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals, and the public.

Over the past 32 years AHNA has consistently delivered valuable resources, improved educational tools, and offered superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks both in the U.S. and abroad.
Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
