American Holistic Nurses Association Announces New Staff
The American Holistic Nurses Association announces new staff member Kaylee Ferguson as the Communications Coordinator, a newly added position with the association. Kaylee graduated from Salina South High School in 2008 and continued her education at Washburn University, where she was active in her sorority, Zeta Tau Alpha. She served on the Executive Committee as the Historian. She then transferred to Kansas State University where she earned her Bachelor’s Degree in Apparels and Textiles with an emphasis in Apparel Merchandising. She was active in the Apparel Marketing and Design Alliance Club, helping organize student fashion shows for members to display their styling and design pieces. While at K-State, she also attended sporting events and helped colonize Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

About AHNA
At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This non-profit professional membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 143 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

The American Holistic Nurses Association’s Education Provider Committee is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center. Commission (ANCC) on Accreditation.

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider # 10442.
