American Holistic Nurses Association Announces New Staff

The American Holistic Nurses Association announces new staff member Tabetha Schoenfeld as the Support Services Administrative Assistant, a newly added position with the association. Tabetha graduated from Topeka High in 2007 and continued her education at Emporia State University. She earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Biology with a concentration in Zoology in 2013, and was an active member of the student organization PRIDE. Following graduation she worked in retail sales positions and also began volunteering at the Topeka Zoo in the Gary K. Clarke Education Building. Founded in 1981, the AHNA is a specialty national nursing association that advocates a mind-body-spirit-emotion approach in the delivery of nursing care to patients. Headquartered in Topeka, Kansas, AHNA is a membership association serving more than 4,500 members and 145 local chapters across the U.S. and abroad.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This non-profit professional membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 143 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

The American Holistic Nurses Association’s Education Provider Committee is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center. Commission (ANCC) on Accreditation.

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider # 10442.
