American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Anabela Santos for 2015 Charlotte McGuire Undergraduate Scholarship Award

Anabela Santos, RN, ASN, was presented the 2015 Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Award at the AHNA 35th annual conference in Branson, Missouri June 12-17, 2015. The Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Program was named in honor of AHNA Founder, Charlotte McGuire and is intended to recognize and celebrate upstanding members of the new generation of holistic nurses dedicated to practicing holistic nursing at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

About Anabela
Anabela Santos, RN, ASN, is a student at the Pacific College of Oriental Medicine in New York, New York. She is an ambitious student, and a published author of two papers, one about guided imagery, published in the 2015 Nursing Journal and another about chronic heart disease published in the 2015 February issue of the Beginnings Magazine. She intends to pursue her Master’s degree in Holistic Nursing with a Nurse Practitioner Certificate so she can open her own wellness practice and become a holistic nurse educator.

About AHNA
At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This non-profit professional membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 143 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

The American Holistic Nurses Association’s Education Provider Committee is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center Commission (ANCC) on Accreditation.

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider # 10442.
