Holistic, Transformative Leadership through Healing Touch Workshop Featured at Holistic Nurses Conference

The American Holistic Nurses Association will be hosting a presentation titled “Holistic, Transformative Leadership through Healing Touch” on Friday, June 12, 2015 from 8 am to 11:45 am in Branson, Missouri at its 35th annual conference. This educational workshop will discuss the energy principles and theories of Healing Touch. It will also explain how Healing Touch can be used as a tool for compassionate service, transformative change within self, client, families, communities and the health care system. Attendees will learn how to apply Healing Touch in different conditions and situations to create healing and wholeness for self and others.

The course presenter, Lisa Anselme, RN, BLS, HN-BC, CHTP/I, is the Executive Director and Holistic Nurse Consultant for Integrative Health Care for Healing Touch International, Inc. She is a Certified Healing Touch Practitioner and Instructor, Certified Holistic Nurse, Reiki Master/Teacher, and held certification as a Clinical Transplant Coordinator through 2002. She has over 18 years of experience as a nurse clinical specialist within the nation's largest teaching hospital with an expertise in women and children's health, transplantation, and biomedical ethics. Anselme has presented extensively to both professional and lay audiences on the topics of health care integration, energy therapies, and holistic consciousness and ethics. Formerly practicing in Iowa City, Iowa, Lisa maintains a full private practice in holistic nursing and bioenergy therapies in Lakewood, Colorado.

Anselme’s presentation is a half-day Friday, (E02) pre-conference workshop offered for 3.5 contact nursing hours at a price of $140.00. It will be held at the Chateau on the Lake Resort Spa and Convention Center in Branson. To learn more about attending this presentation, please visit our website at www.ahna.org/register.
