About Carol Ann Drick

Carole Ann Drick PhD, RN, AHN-BC, is one of the early organizers and supporters of the holistic health focus in nursing, as well as a known leader in holistic nursing. A member of AHNA for over 30 years, Dr. Drick has helped shape the voice of holistic nursing as well as AHNA. She currently serves as the President. Her rich history with the Association reflects her love and passion for holistic nursing. In 2008 she co-authored the American Holistic Nursing Association’s first historical account: Implementing Visions of Health and Healing. She is a two-time recipient of the prestigious American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award for her work in end of life. Currently living in Austintown, Ohio, Dr. Drick is the Founder/Director of Conscious Awareness and the Co Founder/Director of Golden Room Advocates. Knowing holism and self care are vital components in shifting the national health care consciousness to wellness, Dr. Drick assists professionals, clients, organizations and institutions in using natural integrative modalities and innovative self-care and self-reflection methods.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.
AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
