American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Justin Behnke as Recipient of Charlotte McGuire Scholarship

Justin Behnke RN, BSN, HN-BC of Roseville, MI was awarded the 2016 Charlotte McGuire Scholarship at the AHNA 36th annual conference in Bonita Springs, Florida May 31-June 5, 2016. The Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Program was named in honor of AHNA Founder, Charlotte McGuire and is intended to recognize and celebrate upstanding members of the new generation of holistic nurses dedicated to practicing holistic nursing at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

About Justin

Justin Behnke RN, BSN, HN-BC, received his board certification from the Birch Tree Center for Healthcare Transformation’s Integrated Healing Arts Program in Florence, MA. Now enrolled in Florida’s Atlantic University, Behnke is pursuing a Master’s Degree in Advanced Holistic Nursing. Justin acts as the Chair for his Professional Nurse Developmental Council at St. John Hospital and Medical Center in Detroit, Michigan and as a nurse.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This non-profit professional membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 143 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
