The American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) will hold their 37th Annual Conference, “21st Century Nursing: Reshaping Health and Wellness” on June 4- June 11, 2017 at the Westin Mission Hills Resort and Spa in Rancho Mirage, California. Attendees will learn about holistic nursing practice, education and research from healthcare and nursing experts. The conference will offer attendees an enticing and informative schedule of nursing educational workshops, speakers, networking opportunities and exhibitors. More information about the conference can be found at www.ahna.org/Conference.

AHNA conferences can always be counted upon to engage nurses in an understanding of holism and how their practice reflects the origins of holism, holistic nursing and caring as foundational basis of nursing care. Attendees can expect to enjoy early morning activities such as Yoga and Tai Chi and can take part in a “Zen Raffle and Auction.” They will also have the opportunity to participate in pre-conference, half-day and full-day intensive nursing educational sessions.

All are welcome to attend: nurses, educators, administrators, and other healthcare practitioners from all specialties. Come and experience the healing value of a holistic community, networking, sharing circles and mentorship.
