American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Stephanie Hope, RN, BSN, NC-BC as Recipient of Charlotte McGuire Scholarship

Stephanie Hope, RN, BSN, NC-BC of Minneapolis, Minnesota was awarded the 2017 Charlotte McGuire Scholarship at the AHNA 37th annual conference in Rancho Mirage, California June 5-June 10th, 2017. The Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Program was named in honor of AHNA Founder, Charlotte McGuire and is intended to recognize and celebrate upstanding members of the new generation of holistic nurses dedicated to practicing holistic nursing at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

About Stephanie

Stephanie Hope, RN, BSN, NC-BC resides in Kingston, NY and is currently enrolled in the Doctor of Nursing Practice degree in Integrative Health and Healing program at the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis, Minnesota and is a Board Certified Nurse Coach. Stephanie works as a hospice nurse and as a preventative health coach and studies the wisdom teachings of various traditions with the Golden Drum community in NYC under teacher Maestro Manuel Rufino. She intends to integrate various modalities such as Reiki, guided imagery and meditation into her work with patients and their families.

Stephanie has collaborated on NYU’s groundbreaking psilocybin research study, the Cancer Anxiety Project, and is interested in developing the essential role of nursing in the emerging field of psychedelic therapy. She also explores creative means of communication about the dying process, including blog writing, podcasts, and virtual reality.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.
AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services approximately 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
