FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Deborah Greenspan, RN, RM, CNHP, CHPN, as Recipient of the Charlotte McGuire Scholarship

Deborah Greenspan, RN, RM, CNHP, CHPN, of Canoga Park, CA was awarded the 2017 Charlotte McGuire Scholarship at the AHNA 37th annual conference in Rancho Mirage, California June 5-June 10th, 2017. The Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Program was named in honor of AHNA Founder, Charlotte McGuire and is intended to recognize and celebrate upstanding members of the new generation of holistic nurses dedicated to practicing holistic nursing at both the undergraduate and graduate levels.

About Deborah

Deborah Greenspan, RN, RM, CNHP, CHPN, is a nursing student studying online through the RN-BSN-MSN program at Walden University. Prior to attending Walden, she earned certification as a Reiki Master and Certified Natural Health Professional. Thanks to the digital nature of her BSN course, Deborah is able to interact with nurses all over the world, allowing her to advocate for holistic nursing practice and for the better treatment of nurses, patients, families and communities. She also has plans in the near future to begin work on convincing the California Board of Registered Nurses of the validity, value and science of holistic nursing practice. Deborah is the founder and leader for the AHNA California Virtual Chapter, a web forum Special Interest Chapter, which she began in March 2017.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.
AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services approximately 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
