Expand Your Practice: Add Holistic Coaching Tools to Your Tool Belt Workshop
Featured at Holistic Nursing Conference

A 3.5 CNE program entitled “Expand Your Practice: Add Holistic Coaching Tools to Your Tool Belt,” will be hosted on Monday, June 5, 2017 from 1:30 pm to 5:15 pm in Rancho Mirage, California at AHNA’s 37th annual conference. Participants will learn about coaching tools for use in any setting or specialty of nursing. Participants will learn and practice new tools, and hear from a panel of nurses about how they apply coaching in their nursing specialty including application in a pilot coaching program at Cleveland Clinic.

World renowned Nurse Coaching expert, Linda Bark, PhD, RN, MCC, NC-BC, has more than 20 years of coaching experience in her private practice, as well as 15 years in preparing coaches nationwide. Linda recently received recognition for her book and the Bark Coaching Institute’s course companion, The Wisdom of the Whole: Coaching for Joy, Health and Success, which was awarded the American Journal of Nursing 2012 Book of the Year Award for Professional Development and Issues. Following a private practice nursing career in the 1970’s, she worked in the 80’s introducing holistic nursing to hospitals and in the 90’s helping organizations nationwide to start integral healing centers. She has also led tours to China to assist Westerners in creating a context for incorporating Eastern healing into treatment strategies. Her innovative coaching style helps create a learning experience that empowers people while helping them feel and maintain a sense of ease, fun and fulfillment.

Dr. Bark’s presentation is half-day Monday, June 5th (E04), pre-conference workshop offered for 3.5 contact nursing education hours at a price of $155.00. It will be held at the Westin Mission Hills Golf Resort and Spa in Rancho Mirage. To learn more about attending this presentation and other sessions, please visit our website at www.ahna.org/annualconference. AHNA’s Education Provider Committee is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Credentialing Center’s COA. Provider Approves by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider #10442.

About AHNA
At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
