American Holistic Nurses’ Association Solicitation of Workshop Proposals for the 2018 Conference

AHNA is accepting educational workshop proposals for the 2018 Annual Conference, Creating and Expanding Global Presence, until October 15, 2017 and Research Paper, Poster, and Non-Research Poster Proposals until December 1, 2017. The conference will be June 5 to the 10th, in Niagara Falls, NY. Conference lodging is provided by the Sheraton At The Falls Hotel and The Conference & Event Center Niagara Falls will host the meeting.

Proposals are being accepted for both half-day and full day preconference workshops, 60 and 90-minute conference workshops. Research Papers, Research Posters and Non-Research Posters are also being accepted. Eligible proposals must reflect the theme, purpose, and objectives of the conference and topics may apply to practice, education, research, aesthetics and personal & professional development, advanced holistic practice and nurse coaching. All submissions must be relevant to nurses. Nurses, physicians, healthcare and other professionals are welcome to submit proposals.

The 2018 conference theme is Creating and Expanding Global Presence, enabling participants to embrace, enhance & enliven global nursing relationships though shared wisdom, caring, knowledge & research.

About AHNA
At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
