American Holistic Nurses Association Executive Director, Terri Roberts, Joins International Council of Nurses, Global Nursing Leadership Institute 2016

The American Holistic Nurses Association’s (AHNA) Executive Director Terri Roberts JD, RN, has been selected by the International Council of Nurses (ICN) to participate in the 2016 Global Nursing Leadership Institute in Geneva, Switzerland this September. This international gathering of nurses will combine the leadership of 30 individuals in the nursing field across the globe to promote global health priorities, and is sponsored by Pfizer Inc.

About The Global Nursing Leadership Institute

The International Council of Nurses established the Global Nursing Leadership Institute (GNLI) in 2009 to provide a leadership program for about 30 nurses in senior and executive level positions. The GNLI employs an action-learning approach within a collaborative and stimulating learning culture. Participants review and enhance their leadership skills and behaviors related to national and global health priorities.

About the International Council of Nurses

The International Council of Nurses (ICN) is a federation of more than 130 national nurses associations representing the millions of nurses worldwide. Founded in 1899, ICN is the world’s first and widest reaching international organization for health professionals. Operated by nurses and leading nursing internationally, ICN works to ensure quality nursing care for all and sound health policies globally.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.
AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
