FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Journal of Holistic Nursing Accepted by the Emerging Sources Citation Index

The American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA)’s Journal of Holistic Nursing (JHN) has been accepted for Indexing in the Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI). Now that the JHN has been accepted it will benefit from connections to the Clarivate Analytics Web of Science™ Core Collection; which offers greater discoverability, more measurable citations and more transparency in the selection process.

About the Journal of Holistic Nursing

The Journal of Holistic Nursing (JHN) is AHNA’s peer-reviewed professional journal that began in March 1983 and has been published quarterly by Sage Publications since. It provides a forum for caring and innovative nurses in clinical practice, research, individual wellness practice, and academia to exchange critical information, share clinical and personal experiences, and communicate research pertaining to nursing practice, health care, wellness, healing, and human potential.

About the Emerging Sources Citation Index

The Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI) was launched in late 2015 as a new database within Clarivate Analytics’ (formerly Thomson Reuters’) Web of Science. Around 3,000 journals were selected for coverage at launch, spanning the full range of subject areas. As of February 2017, the database contains 5,578 journals and continues to grow.

ESCI expands the citation universe and reflects the growing global body of science and scholarly activity. It complements the highly selective indexes by providing earlier visibility for sources under evaluation as part of Science Citation Index Expanded (SCIE), Social Sciences Citation Index (SSCI), and Arts and Humanities Citation Index (AHCI)’s rigorous journal selection process.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This non-profit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 4,500 members through 130 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
