American Holistic Nurses Association

February 1, 2017
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

American Holistic Nurses’ Association Elects Jalma Marcus as Board Member-at-Large

The American Holistic Nurses Association has elected Jalma Marcus RN, BS, MS, HNB-BC, CLSE, AT, as a Board Member–at-Large for the 2017-2019 term. She will be installed at the organization’s 37th Annual Conference held in Rancho Mirage, CA in June 2017. Her responsibilities will include acting on and cultivating leadership in committees assigned by the President and acting as a liaison between the Association and other organizations.

About Jalma Marcus

Jalma Marcus has dedicated most of her life to nursing and is currently the principle at Quantum HealthCare and Comprehensive Holistic Health, where she manages a Holistic Health and Wellness Center and provides holistic nurse assessments and individual holistic care using many energy/consciousness techniques. Jalma also uses her intensive knowledge in private practice working with individuals, families/groups and teams and as the author of the Quantum Alignment System, a mind body and spirit approach to facilitating organizational health.

Her nursing journey began at Boston University where she earned her Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees. She then went on to become a Board Certified Holistic Nurse and several other practices, including Accunect Practitioner and Instructor, BodyTalk and Advanced PaRama Practitioner, Access Instructor, and Life Style Educator. Jalma has used her extensive knowledge of systems, energy and consciousness to help found several non-profit organizations and she believes that her years of experience and wisdom will help support AHNA as it expands to new heights. Presently, Jalma serves as a Board of Director-at-Large on the Board of the American Holistic Nurses Association and Adjunct Faculty in Foundations of Holistic Nursing Practice and Holistic Leadership and Management at Immaculata University.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This professional specialty nursing membership organization is becoming the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and integrative treatment opportunities to improve the physical, mental, emotional and relational health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services almost 4,500 members through 143 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad.

Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

To learn more, please visit www.ahna.org

For Additional information contact:
Jacob Wingard
Communications@ahna.org
800-278-2462

Jalma Marcus, RN, BS, MS, HNB-BC, CLSE, AT