FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Endorsed Program: Transpersonal Nurse Coaching

AHNA now endorses the Transpersonal Nurse Coaching course presented by Huntington Meditation and Imagery. Transpersonal means beyond the personality. It refers to the deeper resources in human nature – inner peace, inner wisdom, life purpose and oneness to address specific symptoms within the context of the whole person. The program is 87.5 CNE, training includes creating a relationship of trust with your patient/client, cultivating awareness, presence and self-knowing, connecting with inner wisdom, establishing patient/client-centered goals, assessing readiness to change, effective communication skills including deep listening, motivational interviewing and appreciative inquiry and active imagination.

About AHNA Endorsed Programs

The purpose of Endorsement by the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) is to support continuing nursing education (CNE) programs that present content congruent with the mission, vision, and purpose of AHNA, and with the Scope and Standards of Holistic Nursing Practice, and the state of the science/practice for holistic nursing. AHNA wishes to encourage this growth, through advertising and promotion of programs exploring the integration of holistic principles, practices and modalities into the practice of nursing and to recognize those programs, which upon completion, will improve the quality of healing care nurses can provide.

Programs are only endorsed by AHNA after a rigorous peer-review process, and approval of the AHNA Board of Directors
