January 16, 2018
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Madeline Naegle, PhD, CNS-PMH, BC, FAAN to Endnote the 2018 Annual Conference in Niagara Falls, NY

The American Holistic Nurses Association announces that Madeline Naegle, PhD, CNS-PMH, BC, FAAN, Director of the NYU World Health Organization/Pan American Health Organization Collaborating Center for Geriatric Nursing Education, will be the Endnote keynote speaker at their 2018 annual conference in Niagara Falls, NY. The event will take place June 5 through June 10, 2018 at the Sheraton At The Falls with the theme of “Holistic Nursing; Creating and Expanding Global Presence.” Dr. Naegle will speak on Sunday June 10th at 11 AM.

To Register for the 2018 AHNA Annual Conference visit the AHNA website at: http://www.ahna.org/Annual-Conference-Registration or for more information download the registration brochure at: https://goo.gl/WKYb3H

About Madeline Naegle
Dr. Naegle is nationally and internationally known for program development, publications and implementation of policy in addiction and psychiatric nursing, with a focus on older adults. Her leadership in organized nursing includes development of international consultation and education and establishment of the NYU College of Nursing WHO Collaborating Center in Geriatric Nursing Education. She has also lectured on nursing and global health in Cuba, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Argentina, Australia, South Africa, Columbia, Canada, China, Greece, Malta and Belgium and is a Health and Aging Policy Fellow, Class of 2016-17 and serves as Associate Director, RMCON Center for Drug Use and HIV Research.

Dr. Naegle also serves as Associate Professor for the Division of Nursing, School of Education at New York University where she received both her MA and PhD. Her publications include, “Leadership in Addressing Aging in America”, “The Effective Use of Psychiatric Nurses”, “Nursing Care in Alcohol and Drug User Treatment Facilities” and “Addiction: A Global Public Health Challenge for Nurses”, among many others.

About AHNA
The American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) is a non-profit specialty nursing professional membership organization that serves as the definitive voice for registered nurses who practice holistic nursing.

Founded in 1981, AHNA’s primary mission is to advance holistic nursing through Practice, Community building, Advocacy, Research and Education. The association is dedicated to the continued development... of evidence-based holistic research, self-care methods for nurses and non-pharmalogical pain management. AHNA offers networking opportunities to its members along with continuing nursing education through webinars, self-study programs, publications, conferences, and scholarship and grant opportunities.

AHNA currently services more than 5,000 members through 146 local chapters in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

For additional information, contact:
JACOB WINGARD
Communications@ahna.org
800-278-2462

Madeline Naegle, PhD, CNS-PMH, BC, FAAN