Overview
The purpose of this article is to examine the responsibilities of nurses on boards and articulate the competencies needed for successful board service.

Learning Objectives:
Following this education activity, the participant will be able to:
- Identify key competencies for nurses effectively serving on boards
- Describe 3 primary legal duties of boards of directors

Requirements for Successful Completion
Read the entire article, score 70% or better on the posttest, and complete the online evaluation form.

Conflict of Interest
The planners and faculty have declared no conflicts of interest related to this activity.

Commercial Support
There is no commercial support or sponsorship for this activity.

Expiration Date of Contact Hours
Posttest must be completed on or before December 31, 2020

Beginnings, AHNA Member Magazine, December 2018 Issue

AHNA is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing, Provider # 10442

Accredited status does not imply endorsement of any product/service by AHNA or ANCC.

AHNA’s CNE activities do not include any unannounced information about off-label use of a product for a purpose other than that for which it was approved by the Federal Drug Administration (FDA)