Holistic Nursing Educational Guidelines 201: Advanced Foundations of Holistic Nursing

Speaker: Mary Anne Hanley, PhD, RN, QT TT
Planning Committee: Terri Roberts, JD, RN
Linda Thomas, PhD, RN-BC, CCRN, CHTP/I, HTAP
Sharon Burch, MSN, APRN, PHCNS-BC, NC-BC

Overview:
This webinar continues the discussion of development of graduate holistic nursing curriculum. Nursing education, basic to doctoral, is grounded in the core values, and scope and standards of holistic nursing. Participants will not only discover the layers to the development of the Advanced Holistic Nursing Practice role, but also learn the strategies for teaching advanced foundations of holistic nursing and for curriculum development.

Learning Outcomes:
At the conclusion of this activity, learners will be able to:

- Clarify ways in which faculty may use the philosophy and foundational principles of holistic nursing to create a framework for advanced holistic nursing knowledge, skills, and attitudes
- Apply knowledge and insights related to creating graduate courses that focus on the role and purpose of the advanced Holistic Nursing practice
- Engage in dialogue that supports plans to participate in curriculum transformation
