FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Mitzie Meyers as Charlotte McGuire Graduate Scholarship Recipient

Mitzie Meyers, RN, MSN, CNE, AHN-BC, of Hammond, Louisiana was awarded the 2019 Charlotte McGuire Graduate Scholarship at the AHNA 39th Annual Conference in Tulsa, Oklahoma on June 6th, 2019. The Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Program was named in honor of AHNA Founder, Charlotte McGuire, and is intended to recognize and celebrate upstanding members of the new generation of holistic nurses, who are dedicated to practicing holistic nursing and are enrolled in either the undergraduate or graduate levels of nursing education.

About Mitzie

Mitzie Meyers has been a registered nurse for 35 years with clinical experience primarily in neonatal and pediatric critical care. She is currently a faculty member in a baccalaureate nursing program at Southeastern Louisiana University. She has been a member of AHNA for 22 years and is certified as an Advanced Holistic Nurse and as a Nurse Educator. She is currently pursuing her PhD in nursing at William Carey University. Her research interests include exploring resiliency, mindfulness, and emotional intelligence as attributes for leadership in a quantum and servant model. Her future career goals include working with public policy, graduate level nursing education, and wellness program development.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
