FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Carol Michalski McGill as Charlotte McGuire Undergraduate Scholarship Recipient

Carol Michalski McGill, RN, HNBC, PhD, was awarded the 2019 Charlotte McGuire Undergraduate Scholarship at the AHNA 39th Annual Conference in Tulsa, Oklahoma on June 6th, 2019. The Charlotte McGuire Scholarship Program was named in honor of AHNA Founder, Charlotte McGuire, and is intended to recognize and celebrate upstanding members of the new generation of holistic nurses, who are dedicated to practicing holistic nursing and are enrolled in either the undergraduate or graduate levels of nursing education.

About Carol

Carol Michalski McGill, PhD, RN, HNBC, of Maryland, began her career in nursing as a nursing assistant, LPN, then RN with experience in twenty-some hospital settings from med-surg to specialty, serving pediatric, adult, and geriatric populations. Carol’s roles have included staff nurse, team leader, charge nurse, and nursing supervisor/triage nurse. Her past experience also involved ministry and publication of a book in 1995, “Don’t Blame God, Making Sense Out of Tragedy & Suffering.” Her current role is in an outpatient surgery unit, at MedStar Health. Carol has also authored journal articles and poetry. Some of Carol’s notable accomplishments include: Daisy Award recipient, Great Safety Catch and patient feedback recognitions.

Carol believes that compassionate, holistic nursing care makes a huge difference in caring for people. She has been blessed to be able to connect with like-minded nurses in the field. Her future goal is to continue nursing but also be of service to some under-served populations facing life-challenges to restore hope and direction for a more positive future.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
