FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Rose Hosler as 2019 Holistic Nurse of the Year

Rose Hosler, RN, BSN, HNB-BC, HWNC-BC, of Mentor, OH, was honored with the 2019 Holistic Nurse of the Year award at the 39th Annual American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) Conference in Tulsa, Oklahoma on June 6, 2019. The Holistic Nurse of the Year (HNY) award recognizes AHNA members who have contributing to outstanding innovations or changes in the field of holistic nursing. It highlights nurses who have been working in holistic nursing for several years and have demonstrated a commitment towards AHNA’s core values.

About Rose

Rose received her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Cleveland State University in 1992. She has nursing experience in medical surgical nursing, surgical intensive care, emergency room, sexual assault nursing, and the post anesthesia care unit. In 2007 she became certified in clinical aromatherapy and in 2010, completed training as a Reiki Master. In 2012, Rose became a Healing Touch Level II student and studied Healing Touch for babies. From 2011-2013, Rose was the Employee Wellness Coordinator for a large regional hospital providing education, training, and support to employees. She serves as a resource for staff and integrated holistic care. She has always seen the patient as whole and valued the mind/body/spirit connection when working with patients, families, and staff. Rose became Board Certified Holistic Nurse in 2014, and Board Certified Health and Wellness Nurse Coach in 2017, and is currently working at the bedside in a hospital as a Holistic Nurse. She has been putting into practice holistic nursing theory, integrating holistic modalities, and has worked on Acupressure Certification. In 2017, she became a board member of AHNCC.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
