June 19, 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

American Holistic Nurses Association Recognizes Carole Ann Drick as Recipient of 2019 Service Award

Carole Ann Drick, PhD, RN, AHN-BC, of Austintown, Ohio, was awarded the 2019 Service Award at the AHNA 39th Annual Conference in Tulsa, Oklahoma on June 6, 2019. The AHNA Service Award recognizes a AHNA member who consistently contributes their expertise and time to advance AHNA, its mission, vision and support its’ programmatic activities.

About Carole

Dr. Carole Ann Drick, PhD, AHN-BC has a long rich history in holism and self-care for over 38 years. Her underlying theme has been shifting the consciousness of both the health care provider and the person to one of holistic care and living including the use of integrative health approaches.

As one of the early advocates of holism, she was the first childbirth educator in the state of Indiana in the late 1970’s. Now her focus is quality of life across the life span and especially at the end of life. As Past President of the American Holistic Nurses Association and board certified as an Advanced Practice Holistic Nurse by the American Holistic Nursing Certification Corporation, Carole Ann exemplifies holism and brings a rich presence to every encounter as the voice and presence of Holistic Nursing. Her work both nationally and internationally is inspiring and reflects her deep understanding on that which she speaks so eloquently. Her private practice, Conscious Awareness, brings a fresh energized approach to living a life you love.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.
AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

For additional information, contact:
Casey Bohannon
communications@ahna.org
800-278-2462