FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Healing Touch: Integrating Energy Therapy into you Nursing Practice
Workshop featured at Holistic Nurses Conference

The American Holistic Nurses Association will be hosting an educational presentation entitled “Healing Touch: Integrating Energy Therapy into you Nursing Practice,” on Sunday June 2, 2019 from 1:30 pm to 5:15 pm in Tulsa, Oklahoma at its 39th Annual Conference. Healing Touch energy therapy transforms lives. Experience this credentialed, progressive approach to health and healing for your patients and yourself while discovering innovative ways to integrate Healing Touch into your nursing practice.

About Sue

The first speaker, Sue Walker, BSW, HTCP/I has been part of the Healing Touch Program team since 2010 and currently manages the Integrative Care Program and oversees education services. She is passionate about bringing Healing Touch to healthcare facilities, including Veterans Administration facilities. As an experienced Healing Touch Certified Practitioner and Instructor, Sue has provided Healing Touch to clients in a private practice, for hospice and in a clinic setting. Her position as Clinic Director for a nonprofit that provides Healing Touch to veterans and their families gave her the wonderful opportunity to serve those who have served. Combining a background in business and information technology, a degree in social work and Healing Touch gives Sue an eclectic and unique perspective.

About Christina

Christina Russell, BSN, RN, HTCP, Healing Touch Coordinator has been a pediatric nurse for 20 years. Prior to becoming a nurse, she was a Hospital Corpsman in the U.S. Navy and also worked as a nurse’s aide while attending nursing school. In 2010, she began her Healing Touch Training Levels 1-5, and achieved her national Healing Touch Certified Practitioner (HTCP) status in 2015 through the Healing Touch Program™. Her expertise as a manager paired with her experience with Healing Touch allows her to have a large impact on incorporating Integrative Services into a pediatric institution. She has experience with completing the Nurse’s Week Days of Caring, evaluating and enhancing documentation, creating Policies to support Healing Touch Therapy and participated in an Evidence-Based Nursing Fellowship with a Healing Touch project.

Their pre-conference workshop is offered for 3.5 contact nursing education hours at a price of $165.00. It will be held at the Hyatt Regency in Tulsa. About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
