FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Partnering with Plants: Cultivating Deeper Healing Workshop Featured at Holistic Nurses Conference

The American Holistic Nurses Association will be hosting an educational presentation entitled “Partnering with Plants: Cultivating Deeper Healing,” on Sunday June 2, 2019 from 8:00 am to 11:45 am in Tulsa, Oklahoma at its 39th Annual Conference. Participate in a holistic workshop empowering today’s nurse with practical applications essential for implementing the art of Nurse Aroma-Herbalism and the Integrative Practice Model. The historical foundation built upon by influential holistic nurses, philosophies of Vitalism and Nature Care, and plant-based applications will be presented as well as the significance of partnering with nature to create healing environments. Participants will experience herbal applications, perform a personal assessment, learn multiple ways to partner with plants, and join in a guided meditation.

About Valerie

The workshop speaker for the event is the esteemed author and internationally certified clinical aroma therapist, Valerie Cooksey, RN, OCN, FAAIM, CERT. She has authored eight books on the subject of aromatherapy and natural healing and has been featured in numerous natural health publications. As part of her decades of holistic healthcare experience, she has also instructed for both the American Red Cross and the American Cancer Society. In addition, she is certified in emergency response and triage in catastrophic disasters in her role as a FEMA Community Emergency Response Team Member for the greater Houston area.

Cooksey’s pre-conference workshop is offered for 3.5 contact nursing education hours at a price of $165.00. It will be held in the Salon B Promenade at the Hyatt Regency in Tulsa. About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
