FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Reducing Fear and Suffering in Patients and Ourselves: Transpersonal Nurse Coaching
Workshop Featured at Holistic Nurses Conference

The American Holistic Nurses Association will be hosting an educational presentation entitled “Reducing Fear and Suffering in Patients and Ourselves: Transpersonal Nurse Coaching,” on Sunday June 2, 2019 from 8:00 am to 11:45 am in Tulsa, Oklahoma at its 39th Annual Conference. Participants will discover how to bring a transpersonal perspective and complementary clinical skills into the practice of nurse coaching. Clients and practitioners can benefit from integrating energy, meditative and imagery practices that awaken our deeper inner resources of peace, wisdom, purpose and oneness.

About Heidi

The workshop speaker for the event has served in diverse healthcare and academic roles for 34 years. Heidi Taylor, PhD, RN, NC-BC, HN-BC, started her nursing career as a nurse’s aide and has worked as a pediatric staff nurse and hospital clinical director. She was appointed to serve on the Task Force that developed “The Essentials of Doctoral Education for Advanced Nursing Practice (American Association of Colleges of Nursing, 2006).” She was a part of the Texas DNP Task Force, a small group of nursing education leaders who stewarded the initiation of DNP education in Texas. She is also the owner of WholeNurse Coaching and Consulting, a private nursing practice focused on helping people tap into their inner wisdom for life decisions and health improvement.

Taylor’s pre-conference workshop is offered for 3.5 contact nursing education hours at a price of $165.00. It will be held in the Salon A Promenade at the Hyatt Regency in Tulsa. About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
