The American Holistic Nurses Association elected Stasi Lubansky, DNP, ANP-BC, HN-BC, CDE of New York, New York to the Board of Directors. She will be installed at the organization's 39th Annual Conference held in Tulsa, Oklahoma in June 2019. Her responsibilities in this position will include determining the vision, direction and guidance for the specialty association and representing holistic nurses nationally and internationally.

About Stasi

Stasi Lubansky, DNP, ANP-BC, HN-BC, CDE earned her DNP at SUNY Stony Brook School of Nursing, her MS at Columbia University School of Nursing, BSN at New York Hospital-Cornell University School of Nursing, and her Diploma in Nursing at Buffalo General Hospital School of Nursing. She continues to work full time as an adult nurse practitioner at Weill Cornell Internal Medicine Associates. Stasi was recently promoted to Instructor of Education in Medicine at Weill Cornell making her the first clinical nurse practitioner to receive a faculty appointment in the medical school. Stasi is Board Certified in several areas including Holistic Nursing, Aromatherapy, as a Diabetes Educator and Tobacco Treatment Specialist. She is a member of several professional associations and has published in the Journal of Smoking Cessation and the AHNA Beginnings magazine. She counsels and treats patients with diabetes as well as nicotine dependence, trains medical students, residents and other providers in both of these areas while maintaining her primary care practice.
About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
