FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AHNA Elects Becky Sassaman to the Nominating Committee

The American Holistic Nurses Association elected Becky Sassaman RN, BSN, HNB-BC of Highlands Ranch, Colorado to the Nominating Committee. She will be installed at the organization’s 40th Annual Conference held in Albuquerque, New Mexico in June 2020. Her responsibilities will include recruiting potential candidates to serve in elected positions for the 2020 and 2021 ballots, acting on and cultivating leadership in committees assigned by the President and acting as a liaison between the Association and other organizations.

About Becky

Becky Sassaman RN, BSN, HNB-BC earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Regis University of Denver, Colorado. Becky is presently the Registered Nurse Clinical Coordinator for House of Hope, a clinic for homeless women and children in Englewood, Colorado. Concurrently, Becky is a staff RN at Kaiser Permanente in Lone Tree, CO, where she also serves as UFCW Lead RN Union Steward. Becky was recognized in 2014 as an Outstanding Advocate for Homelessness Services and is a two-time nominee for the Florence Nightingale Award. She has been the AHNA Central Colorado Chapter Leader since 2015 and volunteers monthly to serve residents at House of Hope.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
