January 15, 2019
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AHNA Elects Maxine Higgs to the Nominating Committee

The American Holistic Nurses Association elected Maxine Higgs MSN, RN, AHN of Fort Lauderdale, Florida to the Nominating Committee. She will be installed at the organization’s 39th Annual Conference held in Tulsa, Oklahoma in June 2019. Her responsibilities will include recruiting potential candidates to serve in elected positions for the 2020 ballot, acting on and cultivating leadership in committees assigned by the President and acting as a liaison between the Association and other organizations.

About Maxine

Maxine Higgs MSN, RN, AHN earned her Master’s of Advanced Holistic Nursing at Florida Atlantic University. Maxine currently works with Tenet Health System as a Pediatric Intensive Care nurse. She also co-chairs the local AHNA Chapter and is currently working on Level 5 of her Healing Touch Certification. Some of Maxine’s accomplishments include being one of the first team of mentors for new graduate nurses, having initiated change for Advanced Holistic Nursing Master’s Degrees to be included in employee tuition reimbursement, and Grand Round presentations to include holism with increased awareness on Spirituality and Spiritual Care.
About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.

For additional information, contact:
Casey Bohannon
communications@ahna.org
800-278-2462