FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AHNA Introduces Jane Foote as Treasurer

The American Holistic Nurses Association announces Jane Foote, EdD, MSN, RN, CNE of Rochester, MN as the Treasurer. She will be installed as Treasurer at the organization’s 39th Annual Conference held in Tulsa, Oklahoma in June 2019. Her responsibilities in this position will include overseeing the finances of the organization and all levels of fiscal accountability, determining the vision, direction and guidance for the specialty association and representing holistic nurses nationally and internationally.

About Jane

Jane Foote, EdD, MSN, RN, CNE is currently the Program Director for Academic Affairs at Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota. She retired as a tenured full professor and department chair at Winona State University in July 2018 after 27 years of Minnesota State higher education service. Jane is co-chair of the Southern Minnesota Chapter of AHNA. Financial experiences include 10 years of managing a 4 million dollar budget as a Dean at Minneapolis Community and Technical College from 1998-2007, and a 1.8 million dollar budget for HealthForce Minnesota from 2007-2013.

About AHNA

At its founding in 1981, the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) adopted as its primary mission, the advancement of holistic healthcare by increasing awareness and promoting education, as well as personal community-building among nurses, other healthcare professionals and the public. This nonprofit professional membership organization is the definitive voice for holistic nursing for registered nurses and other holistic healthcare professionals around the world. Holistic nursing focuses on integrating traditional, complementary and alternative treatment opportunities to improve the mind body and spiritual health of the whole person.

AHNA delivers valuable resources, improves educational tools, and offers superior networking opportunities to a vibrant and expanding universe of holistic healthcare professionals. AHNA currently services more than 5,500 members through 166 local chapters/networks in the U.S. and abroad. Holistic nursing is recognized by the American Nurses Association as an official nursing specialty with both a defined scope and standards of practice.
